Look no further for the most experienced people for a wide range of financial positions. Your organization can rely on TSI for the most experienced financial consultants, CPAs and subject matter experts in all categories of financial services positions to help cost effectively manage complex initiatives and everyday operations.

Outsourced model provides expertise and flexibility

TSI financial consultants assist our clients with projects ranging from audit preparation, post-audit cleanup and tax services to systems implementation and business process improvement initiatives. The TSI model provides clients with the ability to leverage the best financial talent in an outsourced model that delivers a wide range of flexibility and cost efficiency.

Individuals or comprehensive teams

While the TSI model is a great platform for recruiting and screening the most highly qualified financial individuals for a variety of temporary and permanent positions, TSI also builds and deploys financial services teams for wide range of opportunities that require short or long term deployment.
