

International Project Assessment Tools

TSI Consultants are highly skilled in performing International Project Assessments, and Capability and Maturity Evaluations using Best Practice methodologies and proven processes.

The professional experience and knowledge of TSI's tenured Project Management Professionals results in a quantifiable advantage.

TSI Consultants have authored Project Assessment materials that are recognized worldwide as industry standard documentation, assessment tools, references and materials.

International Project Assessment Deliverables:

- Project Governance: stakeholders, process, timing and criteria
- Project Management Process Phases: inputs, actions, outputs, handoffs
- Documented Process Requirements: inputs, outputs, responsibilities, frequency, format
- Project Reporting: frequency, format, responsibilities
- Project Personnel: awareness, ability, team management, selection
- Process Implementation Measurement: metrics, timing, reporting
- Project Results Measurement: outcomes, customer satisfaction, team effectiveness
- Project Budgeting: methods, responsibilities, planned vs. actual
- Project Communication: formal, informal and review meetings
- Project Consequences System: incentives and penalties
- Project Management Infrastructure: systems, equipment and facilities
- Project Capacity and Prioritization: resource utilization and prioritization criteria
- Project Knowledge Management: captured, actionable, shared and utilized
- Detailed Mapping: "what's really happening" on the project
- Recommendations: ongoing enhancements of the project environment
- Project Assessment Tools: conducting ongoing assessments
- Online Assessment Tools and Assistance: actionable performance improvement
- Assessment Tools: moving forward, capabilities and maturity